

Please leave the general public somewhere that we can go without hearing others talking loudly on the telephone about matters that are of no concern to anyone except the two people on the telephone. We are perpetuating people's rude and inconsiderate behavior.

I can appreciate there are some legitimate reasons for using a phone while on an airplane but the resulting behaviors negate them.